

Hotel Felix Named a 2015 Best of +VIP Access Hotel by Expedia Expedia Honors Hotels Worldwide for Demonstrating Superior Customer Service

(CHICAGO – Dec. 8, 2015) – Expedia.com[®], one of the world's largest full service online travel sites¹, revealed the 2015 Best of +VIP Access Hotels. Hotel Felix, Chicago's first Silver LEED certified hotel, has been named to this elite list of hotels. +VIP Access Hotels properties are recognized for their exemplary customer service and willingness to offer premium experiences to Expedia+ members.

The 2015 Best of +VIP Access winners are chosen from a prestigious collection of more than 1,800 +VIP Access hotels worldwide, already known for superior service and excellent guest reviews. To be considered a +VIP Access hotel, the property must rank among the highest customer satisfaction rankings, reflecting feedback from elite Expedia+ members.

Special benefits for Expedia+ members include free parking and transfers, resort credits, free spa treatments and Wi-Fi, as well as complimentary food and drink for travelers at the Expedia +silver or +gold level. The full list of Best of +VIP Access Hotel winners can be found here. Visitors to Expedia.com can identify a +VIP Access Hotel when booking on Expedia.com by looking for the +VIP Access logo alongside the hotel listing.

"Expedia is thrilled to recognize hotels around the globe that continue to exceed customer expectations," said John Morrey, Vice President and General Manager of Expedia.com. "We're particularly delighted to honor a select group of hotels that have earned this honor for consecutive years running. Smart customer service is a difference-maker – customers reward it and Expedia rewards it as well, as our systems are designed to generate more business for hotels who provide the best customer experiences."
